Total Uninstall

A free software program that records changes made to your computer when programs are installed making it possible to locate and remove all changes made if you decide to uninstall it.

Search at www.google.com for the free download.