

Laptops Battery Recharge

It is important when you purchase a laptop that you run it on battery until the battery is used up for at least 4 or 5 times so that the battery will be conditioned to recharge properly. Many batteries lose their ability to recharge if the laptop is always plugged into a power source. Besides, if the laptop is under warranty you should find out if the battery is working properly BEFORE it is beyond the warranty period.

Revised 5/29/2009 JMM