UBUNTU

Linux's new FREE Ubuntu Operating System is getting much attention by BIG Business these days and also catching the attention of many home users who are fed up with paying the big bucks of Windows OS and then bigger bucks for many necessary software packages. You'll be hearing more about this...I think I'll do a presentation on Ubuntu soon as I have time to work with it more. Jmax

About Ubuntu - Ubuntu is a community developed, linux-based operating system that is perfect for laptops, desktops and servers. It contains all the (FREE) applications you need - a web browser, presentation, document and spreadsheet software, instant messaging and much more. http://www.ubuntu.com/products/WhatIsUbuntu
